

Articulation Agreement
University of North Carolina at Pembroke and Robeson Community College
A.A.S in Business Administration and Bachelor of Science in Business Administration
March 2024

I. Purpose

This Articulation Agreement is established by and between the University of North Carolina at Pembroke and Robeson Community College and is applicable to students who complete the required hours for the Associate in Applied Science in Business Administration from Robeson Community College and transfer to the University of North Carolina at Pembroke and major in Bachelor of Science in Business Administration. Business Administration majors must choose a track in Economics, Entrepreneurship, Finance, International Business, Management, or Marketing. Transfers who have not completed the Associate in Applied Science degree will be evaluated on an individual basis.

The University of North Carolina at Pembroke, located in Pembroke, NC, is a four-year public university and part of the University of North Carolina system. UNC Pembroke is regionally accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award Baccalaureate, Masters, and Doctoral level degrees.

Robeson Community College, located in Lumberton, NC, is a two-year public community college and part of the North Carolina Community College System. Robeson Community College is regionally accredited the Southern Association of College and Schools Commission on Colleges to award associate degrees, diplomas, and certificates.

II. Terms

The parties agree to the following:

1. This Articulation Agreement is effective as of the date of the executed document and shall continue until terminated. Both parties must approve amendments to this Articulation Agreement.
2. Either party may terminate this Articulation Agreement without cause upon 90 days written notice to the other party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may terminate this Articulation Agreement immediately in the event that participation under this Articulation Agreement may give rise to a violation of any requirement of federal or state law or regulation or the requirements of any accrediting agency having jurisdiction.
3. Any changes or additions to the agreement shall be made after consultation with the proper official of both institutions.
4. Robeson Community College will ensure that qualified faculty members teach all courses in the A.A.S. Business Administration program. The College will ensure that staffing of the program and its courses meet the standards set forth in The Principles of Accreditation:

Foundations for Quality Enhancement (6.2.a) by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges.

5. All students must meet UNC Pembroke transfer admissions requirements. The student must complete a UNC Pembroke transfer application. Final admission to UNC Pembroke is contingent upon the submission of an official Robeson Community College transcript as well as official transcripts from any other college from which credits are used to meet graduation requirements prior to enrolling at UNC Pembroke.
6. All students will matriculate with all privileges and benefits available to students enrolled at UNC Pembroke including financial aid, student government leadership, academic transfer honors, and social organizations. Additionally, transfer pre-advising will be provided through the Transfer Transition and Engagement Office at UNC Pembroke to all students who declare their intention to transfer to UNC Pembroke. For more information, please contact the Transfer Transition and Engagement Office at (910) 775-4599.
7. Transfer students applying under this agreement who are eligible for full Pell Grant may qualify for an application fee waiver. For more information, please contact Undergraduate Admissions at (910) 521-6262.
8. If this agreement is revised or terminated, Robeson Community College students that have matriculated at UNC Pembroke may continue until completion of the baccalaureate degree, contingent upon continuous enrollment. Students that do not remain continuously enrolled will be reviewed on an individual basis.
9. The parties grant each other a non-exclusive, non-transferrable license to use each other's trademarks and service marks in furtherance of the articulation coordination detailed herein or in a manner solely for the purposes of identifying and communicating the existence of the relationship to Robeson Community College students and alumni. Use of trademarks, service marks, and logos will comply with the use policies of the originating institution. The parties shall discontinue the use of the licensed marks and return all files and materials containing the licensed marks supplied by the owner at termination or expiration of this Articulation Agreement. Neither party grants the other any interest in the other party's trademarks. Should either originating institution request, in writing, that a particular use of the originating institution's trademarks and/or service marks be discontinued, the non-originating institution shall cease and desist such use of the trademarks and/or service marks.
10. The parties hereto will have the relationship of independent contractors for all purposes. Each will have complete control over its own performance and the details of accomplishing its own obligations under this Articulation Agreement. In no event will the agents, representatives, or employees of one party be deemed to be agents, representatives, or employees of the other.
11. A duly authorized representative of each party may execute this Articulation Agreement, either by electronic or facsimile transmission, each of which will be considered an original.
12. This agreement will be reviewed and revised every 3 years. NOTE: The Director of Transfer Transition and Engagement will be responsible for revising all existing bilateral articulation agreements.

VI. Elements

1. To be eligible for admissions under this agreement, each candidate must have at least a 2.0 cumulative Quality Point Average (QPA) on a 4.0 scale on all prior college/university course work.
2. Only courses with a grade of "C" or higher will be accepted for transfer credit.
3. Total required hours for a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration at UNC Pembroke is 120 hours.
4. Students must complete a minimum of 9 hours of Writing Intensive courses at UNC Pembroke. Graduation from UNC Pembroke is based on successful completion of General Education including 2 hours of Physical Education and Wellness., which is required for all baccalaureate degrees, and upon successful completion of a specialized program for a major.
5. Students are required to complete the Indigenous Cultures and Communities (ICC) graduation requirement as part of the undergraduate curriculum. Students transferring to UNCP Pembroke with 60 (or more) transfer credit hours are required to take EITHER one (1) approved ICC designated 3-credit hour course OR one (1) designated and department-approved co-curricular learning experience. Students transferring to UNCP with fewer than 60 transfer credit hours are required to take EITHER two (2) approved ICC designated 3-credit hour courses OR one (1) approved ICC designated 3-credit hour course AND one (1) ICC designated and department-approved co-curricular learning experience.
6. UNC Pembroke does not limit the number of transfer credits in which a student can transfer; however, a minimum of 25 percent of the semester hours applied toward a bachelor's degree must be earned through regular enrollment in UNC Pembroke. For more information, please refer to UNC Pembroke's specific degree requirements for majors. A course equivalency chart is attached to this document (Section V).

7. Students who want to study more than one track must successfully complete all requirements for each, plus, at least 12 additional unduplicated hours for the second track. A minimum of 50% of the semester hours in the Business major must be taken at UNC Pembroke.
8. All incoming students in the Thomas College of Business and Economics are required to complete the Passport to Professional Success. The Passport Program is series of skill-based activities designed to enhance your resume and increase your professionalism in the workplace. The program is divided into modules in Canvas, labeled BUS 1001-BUS 1006. Each module provides an overview of topics that will benefit students in their future and current profession. Failure to complete the program may delay graduation and the ability to participate in graduation.
